Tom Sheehan's "It's Only Love" is #2 Most Added Out of the Box

"It's Only Love," the new single from songwriter Tom Sheehan is the #2 Most Added Song on Friday Morning Quarterback's Adult Contemporary (A/C) chart for the week of March 5, 2001.

"It's Only Love" appears on the Tom Sheehan cd "Film at Eleven" on 19 North Records.

According to the FMQB chart, "It's Only Love" was added to 24 A/C radio station playlists in its first week of release, second only to pop star Peter Cetera.

"It's Only Love" entered the FMQB chart at #101, the highest debut single for the week.

The Friday Morning Quarterback A/C chart panel includes approximately 220 stations nationwide. Friday Morning Quarterback is one of four principal trade magazines for the record and radio industries. (The others are Album Network, Gavin and Radio & Records.)

"Film at Eleven" has found success at other radio formats as well with over 120 Adult Album Alternative (AAA) and major college stations spinning the record and has earned critical praise in the trade press.

"Film at Eleven" is distributed in the United States by Redeye Distributing and is available in record stores throughout America as well as via the major on-line record stores like CDNow.com, Amazon.com, Borders.com and many others.
